The Linux Users' Group of Davis presents:

C.H.I.P.: The World's First $9 Computer

A tiny 1GHz system with 512MB RAM, 4GB storage, USB, built-in WiFi & Bluetooth, and composite video.
Add-ons include VGA & HDMI adapters, and PocketC.H.I.P: 4.3" touchscreen, QWERTY keyboard, & battery.

– and –

PINE A64: A $15 64-bit supercomputer

A 500MHz to 1.2GHz quad-core system with up to 2GB RAM, micro SD storage, 2 USB ports, HDMI, audio out, and Ethernet (up to Gigabit).
Add-ons include WiFi, Bluetooth, camera, touch panel, & LCD.

Learn about these two new ultra-low-cost computers, and see them in action!

Linux Users' Group of Davis	Explorit Nature Center
Monday, February 15th, 2016	3141 Fifth St.
7:00pm – 9:00pm	Davis, CA

Free, and open to the public!

www.LUGOD.org
facebook.com/LinuxUsersGroupOfDavis